

The Barossa and Clare Valley

Murray Street Vineyards, Barossa

The Barossa is everything you'd expect from Australia's most famous wine region. There's the cellar doors with household names like Penfolds, Yalumba, Wolf Blass and Jacob's Creek along with boutique wineries – more than 70 cellar doors and 150 wineries in all. You may even be served by the winemaker and get to share in their knowledge and passion for wine. The sensational scenery of rolling hills and vineyards with some of the world's oldest vines, food markets and charming village culture make for a holiday that's good enough to eat. And it's all just an hour from Adelaide.

Along with a wine culture that's second to none, The Barossa serves up a wealth of culinary pleasures. Stock up at the Saturday morning Barossa Farmers Market, visit Maggie Beer's Farm Shop and taste locally produced cheeses, olives, breads and cakes. There's such a rich heritage throughout The Barossa, from the historic buildings to artisan food producers specialising in traditional products.

Soak up the country hospitality, gourmet food and delightful wines of the Clare Valley. The landscape is dotted with farms, vineyards and country roads leading to lovingly restored heritage towns. Follow the 300 kilometre drive along the Heartland Heritage Trail to experience the living traditions in the Clare Valley. Hire a bike and cycle the Riesling Trail, stopping at dozens of wineries along the way. Sample the local produce – everything from chutney to organic lamb – in the many farm shops, cafés and restaurants. All this local food and wine is there to be enjoyed, after all.
