Take a guided tour of the limestone Jenolan Caves

Browse the antique stores and galleries in Leura and Katoomba

Amazing views are just the beginning of the Blue Mountains' allure. Less than two hours out of Sydney, a whole world of spectacular landscape, village life, adventure sports and pampering spas awaits. Simple pleasures can be enjoyed between villages that offer country hospitality and wonderful local produce.

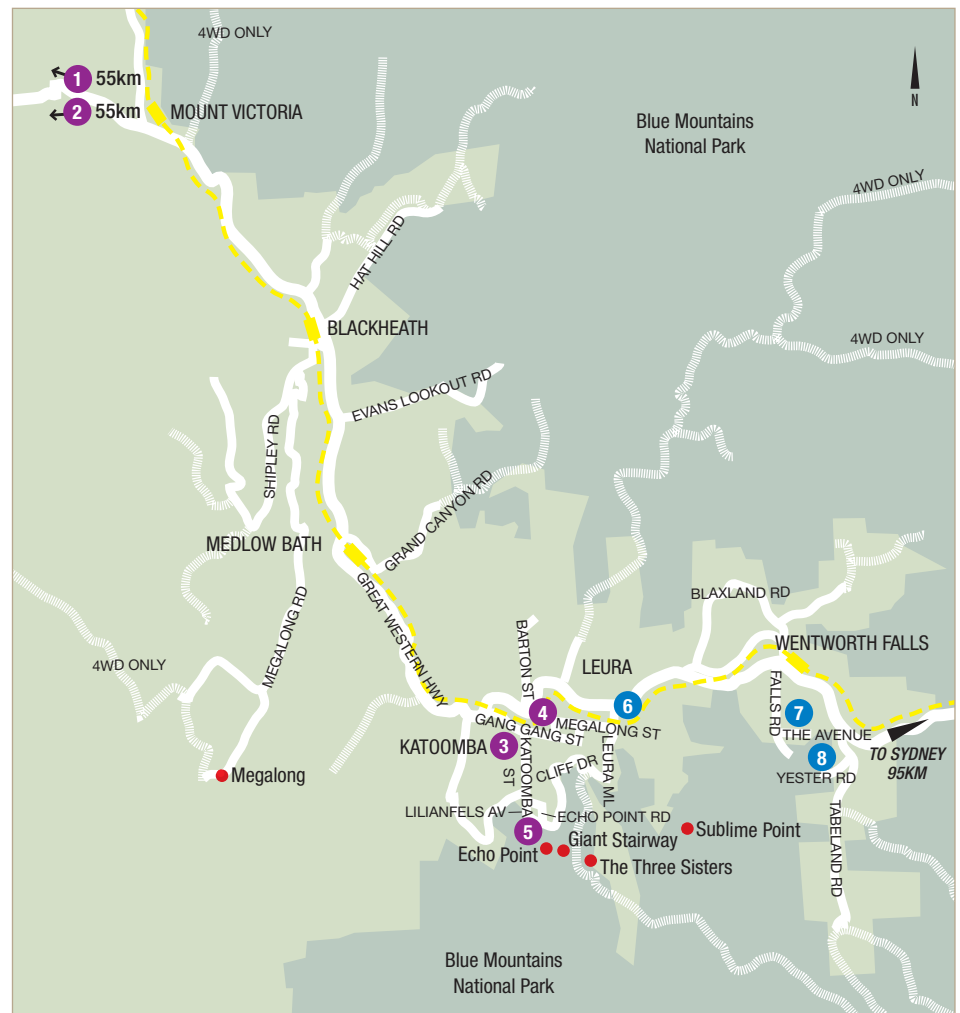

Be captivated by the scenery starting at Echo Point in Katoomba. The Three Sisters stand tall surrounded by the Megalong Valley, discover the Giant Stairway and take in the breathtaking views across to the Ruined Castle. Bushwalking is a favourite pastime here and is the best way to see the whole area. The historic town of Wentworth Falls is fantastically picturesque, go exploring by foot and be rewarded with sensational views over the Jamison Valley, home to the breathtaking waterfall for which the area is named.

Ready for adventure? Get the adrenalin pumping as you abseil down cliff faces or ride the Scenic World railway 415 metres down into the ancient rainforest. Spend some time walking through the forest before climbing aboard the steepest aerial cable car in the southern hemisphere for the 545 metre ascent out of the Jamison Valley rainforest – a truly amazing experience.

Just out of town near Lithgow, be fascinated by the limestone Jenolan Caves, intriguing travellers for more than a century.
