Enjoy a cheap meal with great views at the Surf Life Saving Club

Couples and families alike love to holiday at Kingscliff where there's no shortage of beaches, watersports and riverside escapes. In fact, sunny days in the subtropical climate make Kingscliff the perfect holiday spot for just about anything outdoors. Head down to one of the surf beaches for a swim or surf, or relax by the river. The whole area is a coastal playground, from rainforests and farmland to unspoilt beaches and ocean adventures.

Kingscliff is the perfect place for a laidback getaway. Browse the boutiques, take a relaxing afternoon walk along the foreshore or pick up the pace with a bike ride around the seven kilometre network of cycle paths. Casual meals outside are a must-do coastal pleasure. Pack a picnic to take down to the park or end the day on a high note with a seafood barbecue on the waterfront.

The Kingscliff region is all about taking the time to unwind in the great outdoors. Book a river cruise or a fishing charter off the picturesque coastline, spotting dolphins while you're out there. The area spoils for choice when it comes to quaint shops and souvenirs. Once you've seen the sights and are ready for some relaxation, chill out at the renowned Golden Door Spa at Salt Village. A massage or spa treatment is just the ticket to holiday bliss.
