

Napier and Hawke's Bay

Craggy Range Winery, Hawke's Bay

Our Favourites

Taste red wines at over 30 wineries

Explore Napier's art deco architecture

Climb to the top of Te Mata Peak

Pick fruit from orchards and sample local delicacies at roadside stalls

Visit the Harvest Hawke's Bay festival in February

The Hawke's Bay region is the leading producer of red wines in the country. Over 30 wineries open their doors for wine tasting and alfresco dining amongst the vines, creating a great excuse for a self-drive journey.

Historic Napier is a must see for its world famous art deco architecture. The town has the highest concentration of art deco buildings in the world and celebrates with an Art Deco Weekend in February. Take a stroll around town and call in to the Napier farmers' market on a Saturday morning. The artisan foods and fresh produce are a perfect match with the wine you're sure to pick up from a vineyard in the area.
