

Eastern Beaches and Airport

Bondi Icebergs

Each of Sydney's eastern suburbs offers something special. The treasure in fashionable Double Bay can be found in designer clothing, fine jewellery and antiques. Watson's Bay's riches are its harbour views. A seafood lunch at Doyle's is a treat. Or for something more casual, stroll into the Watson's Bay Hotel, Sydney's only harbourside beer garden.

Set your sights on world famous Bondi, one of Sydney's most eclectic and exciting precincts, and just eight kilometres from the city. The quintessential Aussie beach culture plays out in front of you at the home of great surf and good food. Browse Bondi's famous Sunday Markets or get your retail fix exploring the funky boutiques along Bondi Road. Ravesi's is the place to go for a drink opposite Bondi Beach, or head up to Icebergs Dining Room and Bar for celebrity spotting and spectacular ocean views. Speedo's is where the locals go for brunch overlooking the beach.

Lovely Coogee is a haven for couples and families alike, with a great surf beach and protected marine reserve that attracts snorkellers and scuba divers. Nearby Maroubra Beach is the spot for serious surfers. Almost as famous as Coogee beach are two iconic Sydney pubs – Coogee Bay Hotel and Coogee Palace. These are the pubs to visit, both day and night.

See all these options plus a few hidden gems on the scenic coastal cliff walk between Bondi and Coogee via Tamarama and Bronte.
