3 Day Cradle Mountain Experience

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Abundant native wildlife
- Challenging mountainous terrain
- Panoramic views and stunning vistas
- Sumptuous Tasmanian fare

Day 1: Launceston to Cradle Mountain

Your tour begins in Launceston with a general tour briefing, gear check and the opportunity to hire or purchase any equipment that you need. Depart for Cradle Mountain, stopping in the historic town of Sheffield to see the murals and morning tea. Check in to your overnight accommodation before enjoying lunch followed by an afternoon walk. There are a number of walks to choose from and your guide will offer one most appropriate to the conditions at the time. A favourite afternoon walk is around beautiful Dove Lake taking in the amazing pre-historic plant life and impressive views of Cradle Mountain and Dove Lake. There will be time in the evening to sight some of Tassie's special creatures as they graze in the dusk light. Overnight in Cradle Mountain. (LD)

Day 2: Cradle Mountain

Set off early today for a full day in the mountains. Your guides can make it as challenging or as leisurely as you wish. Conditions permitting, they will offer you the opportunity to trek to the base of Cradle Mountain and climb to its summit. En route encounter the beautiful Crater Falls and Crater Lake before tackling the steep trail up to Marion's Lookout, taking in the sweeping views of the surrounding mountains. If weather or other conditions prevent climbing to the summit, an alternative walk will be offered such as the challenging Face Track which skirts beneath Cradle Mountain. At night retire back to the comfortable cabins to relax before enjoying a hearty evening meal. Overnight in Cradle Mountain. (BLD)

Day 3: Cradle Mountain to Launceston

Another wonderful day in the hills begins with a delicious breakfast. Enjoy a morning walk and stop by the visitor centre. Choose from a selection of spectacular trails such as the King Billy walk which takes in some of the oldest trees in the world including an ancient King Billy that is between 1,500 and 2,000 years old. After lunch, travel back to Launceston passing through the rolling farmland and colonial style towns of the countryside. (BL)

INCLUDES:

- 2 nights shared cabin accommodation

4 Day Maria Island Walk

HIGHLIGHTS:

- See natural and historic wonders of Maria Island
- Eco-friendly tourism experience
- Walk along spectacular coastlines
- See abundant wildlife ▪ Small group touring
- World Heritage Listed convict settlement

Day 1: Hobart to Maria Island

Start with a hotel pick-up in Hobart. Then it's a short drive to Triabunna. Enjoy a marine adventure as you explore Mercury Passage en route to Shoal Bay on Maria Island's isthmus. Arrive in ample time to enjoy stunning views and walk through beautiful forests with abundant wildlife. Relax at the delightful camp, take a swim in the sheltered bay and enjoy Tasmanian wine and fresh food. Overnight at Casuarina Beach Camp. (LD)

Day 2: Maria Island

Walk from Riedle Bay across the isthmus to Shoal Bay to stroll five fabulous beaches. Explore the convict cells at Point Lesueur and visit an ochre pit at Bloodstone Point – one of the original ochre sources for the Tasmanian Aborigines. Put your feet up at camp, where native birds will entertain you while you sip wine on the deck. Overnight at White Gums Camp. (BLD)

Day 3: Maria Island

Head inland to green forests that are a habitat for the 40 endangered Spotted Pardalote. Walk the gentle inland track to Hopgrounds Beach and the Painted Cliffs, or continue to the 711 metre summit of Mt Maria for breathtaking 360 degree views, or save the mountain climb for Bishop and Clerk, with its fantastic sea and coastline vistas. Finish the day with a sumptuous banquet and accommodation in the historic colonial home once occupied by Italian entrepreneur, Diego Bernacchi. (BLD)

Day 4: Maria Island to Hobart

A chance to relax and enjoy the serenity of Darlington and walk through the tall Blue Gum forest, to the convict brickworks and heritage reservoir and around to the world class Fossil Cliffs. Enjoy a champagne lunch overlooking the stunning Freycinet Peninsula, followed by a gentle tour around the convict settlement and industrial ruins of Darlington itself as you soak in the atmosphere.
